A “Crew of Two” Production

Plight of the Earth Fairy

Living in the shadow of the Tooth Fairy, the Earth Fairy has an identity crisis and seeks professional help.

This film was created entirely by a crew of two. New filmmaker Kim Sheridan wrote, directed, produced, filmed, co-edited, and created the musical score, all within 48 hours. Jameth Sheridan filled the roles of camera operator, gaffer, grip, co-editor, and tech guy. Kim played all female roles, and Jameth played all male roles. This is one of the first films produced by EnLighthouse Entertainment, which is currently a “Ma and Pa” production company.

“This little film was a lot of work and a lot of fun to make. It is my hope that it is also a lot of fun to watch!”

Logline:

Living in the shadow of the Tooth Fairy, the Earth Fairy has an identity crisis and seeks professional help.

Synopsis:

This film was created as part of the 48-Hour Film Project, in which a short narrative film had to be written, filmed, and produced within 48 hours. The film had to include the following elements:

Character: Rick or Rita Hernandez, Doctor

Prop: Chair

Line of Dialog: “I’m trying my best”

Genre Randomly Drawn From a Hat: Film de Femme

New filmmaker Kim Sheridan accepted this challenge, but took it one step further. She chose to do it all with a cast and crew of only two: herself and Jameth. Kim played all female roles, and Jameth played all male roles.

This is one of the first films produced by EnLighthouse Entertainment. Kim Sheridan founded EnLighthouse with the goal of spotlighting important and often obscure issues that affect us and our world but are often overlooked or altogether unknown. It is Kim’s intention to inspire new ways of thinking, and to effect positive change, through humor and the power of film. Kim feels that film is a very powerful tool of change, and this film is one of her first efforts in that regard.

“Plight of the Earth Fairy” tackles some of the more controversial issues in today’s environmental crisis, and it does so through humor and lighthearted entertainment. The goal is to inspire viewers to learn more, pay attention, take responsibility, and get involved. It’s just a small film, but the information it presents has the potential to make a big difference.

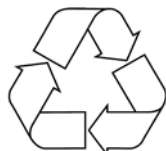

Kim is now working on additional Earth Fairy films. Stay tuned...

Director's Statement:

"It's always a challenge to direct and star in the same film. I was basically running around, back and forth, behind and in front of the camera during the entire shoot! But it was also very rewarding. Being the writer, I was very particular about how I envisioned the various scenes, so it just made sense to direct it as well. Nevertheless, no matter how much of a vision I had in advance, it was still fun - and sometimes surprising - to see how it all turned out in the end.

Because this film was made as part of the 48-Hour Film Project, we were on a very tight deadline - so when something went wrong, there really wasn't time to re-set up the scene and re-shoot. Instead, I had to improvise as needed. I think, in a way, improvisation sparks just that extra bit of creativity that gives a film a unique flair. So, I'd say this film had its own share of uniqueness! The subject matter is near and dear to my heart - and I'm very much like the Earth Fairy in real life - so it was a rewarding experience to bring that persona to life.

All in all, I'm glad I did it! This little film was a lot of work and a lot of fun to make. It is my hope that it is also a lot of fun to watch!" —Kim Sheridan

Cast & Crew

Kim Sheridan - Writer, Producer, Director, Director of Photography, Production Designer, Editor, Soundtrack Composer/Musician, Actor (Earth Fairy & Dr. Rita Hernandez)

As a young child, Kim Sheridan spent much of her free time engaged in one form of entertainment or another. She often wrote, produced, and performed plays, puppet shows, musical performances, and other productions for her family, friends, and neighbors. She was also an active cast and crew member of school plays and church productions; and she even earned a special Girlscout badge by adapting a play called "The Miracle Worker" (about the life of Helen Keller) for a crew of three, in which she played the leading role as Annie Sullivan, Helen Keller's teacher. In college, Kim dabbled in various performing arts courses; and she tried to enroll in a Film Production program but was daunted by a six-year waiting list. Her life then went off in other directions: She earned a Naturopathic degree in holistic health, co-founded a nutritional supplement company, and then became an award-winning author. But her filmmaking dreams never died, so she took production courses in her spare time, founded EnLighthouse Entertainment, and finally just went ahead and made her first short film. Now, several short films later, Plight of the Earth Fairy is here! Kim is currently working on additional Earth Fairy films. Stay tuned...

Jameth Sheridan - Camera Operator, Gaffer, Grip, Editor, Tech Guy, Actor (Dr. Feelgreat & Other Male Characters)

In high school, Jameth spent his spare time in the Media Center, editing on VHS. He also took a course in which he made short films. But his main passion was holistic health, and that's how he met Kim Sheridan (at a health conference). Jameth earned a Naturopathic degree in holistic health and co-founded HealthForce Nutritionals. Today Jameth is a leading expert in the field of health and nutrition. He is also extremely supportive of Kim's filmmaking career, lending his technical skills and other talents wherever needed. So he is the other half of the team of EnLighthouse Entertainment, which is currently a "Ma and Pa" production company.
